Mike Thornton demands action and a promise kept:

Sort out our roads - NOW!

Mike Thornton is backing Eastleigh Council's bid with local businesses to get funding for the much-needed Chickenhall Lane by-pass to end traffic congestion on Bishopstoke Rd.

Before the last General Election the Conservative candidate from near Gatwick, and the Chancellor, said they'd fund the road in "100 days". 400 days later: nothing!

One year on, all we've got from this broken promise is a line in the Budget saying funds for the road could be "bid" for.

With turmoil in the Conservative Party, Labour's civil war and UKIP losing its leader, the Lib Dems are Britain's fastest growing party and a voice for reason and common-sense.
